Let see the glimpse of LLM participant's views. Especially on Why we come to China and why PKU Law School.

As we know there are three big legal systems in the history 1) Common law system 2) Civil Law System and Islamic law system. For long time scholars compare these legal system and try to find the solution of legal problems. Now the world is considering the 4th legal system called Chinese legal system. Actually which is not a new but somehow it's new to the many countries. So, it's an immense task for many lawyers from different countries to learn Chinese laws and Legal system because it is considered as need of the day.

Due to lack of expertise just few law schools in different countries are offering some course about Chinese law. So for better understanding of Chinese legal system, China is the best place. Apart from this, few other things are Chinese culture, traditions and history.

When we try to find the best law school in China, wherever you search, may be on internet, world ranking websites or news, PKU Law School is always on top. We all are witnessed that, no other law school in the world is able to draft a best sketch of Chinese laws as PKU Law School. There are several reasons which makes it unique.

With the high quality teaching staff PKU law school is excellent in teaching as well as in researches at advanced level, which inspired us. Its research work is innovative and competitive. According to the Alumni of law school, PKU is acting as a hub of international speakers, conferences, events, ideas and ample opportunities.

The purpose for which we are here; I want to say that, Actually, this is the team of different creative and inspired minds, with different legal backgrounds and experience but with a common goal.

Everyone is motivated and excited to learn Chinese laws and legal system, to make the comparative study of Chinese legal system with other legal systems, to solve the legal issues in present laws, to observe the Chinese culture, to introduce their home country culture to Chinese peoples and keen to develop long lasting relationship of their home countries with China.

We have chosen this PKU Law School as our Mother Institution to fulfil our dreams and we consider it as a key step towards our future. I assure you that we are committed to work hard, not only for learning new laws but also to shape the strong bridges of friendship among our nations. Our work will show you our competency and you will be proud to having us in future.

I warmly welcome to all the Chinese Students, researchers and scholars to come and discuss with us present legal issues. I think this step will work as catalyst to promote mutual understanding and will provide us a common platform to examine and discuss the different laws.
